MISSION BRIEFING

01

THE BRIEFING

THE ULTIMATE PRESSURE TEST

The pinnacle of your academic and technical journey meets the ultimate pressure test. The Final Defense is where final-year students pitch their capstone projects, software prototypes, or hardware inventions to industry veterans and experienced researchers.

Defend your research, demonstrate your software architecture, and prove the real-world scalability of your solution. This isn't a standard academic presentation it's an evaluation by leading tech executives looking for exceptional talent, industrial innovation, and market readiness.

ELIGIBILITY

02

WHO & WHAT

FINAL-YEAR CAPSTONE TEAMS

- ▶ Open specifically to final-year undergraduate projects and capstone teams.
